

Fall 2022

HIS 360
Greek and Roman Warfare

Tuesday/ Thursday, 11:30-12:45pm

A survey of ancient Greek and Roman warfare covering the ideology of war and peace, the strategy and tactics of battle, the role of developing technology, and the great battles that decided the course of Western Civilization. Learn the ins and outs of warfare in Greece and Rome by going where no Civ teacher has dared to go--in the saddle with general Alexander, in a besieged city running out of food, in the bloody triumph celebrated by a victorious Roman general. 3 credits. No prerequisites. Dr. John Lawless.