

HISTORY 331

MEDIEVAL EUROPE I : EMPERORS, BARBARIANS, WARRIORS, QUEENS IN THE EARLY MIDDLE AGES

Tuesday/Thursday

1:00-2:15 pm

Dr. Constance Rousseau

The “Medieval Dark Ages” were anything but dark. Let’s shine a light on this period and investigate the emperors and barbarians, warriors and queens, heretics and bishops, saints and sinners. Come and explore this exciting time of violence, power, intrigue, and corruption. We will investigate the political, economic, social, and artistic developments of Medieval Europe and its cross cultural contacts with the lands bordering the Mediterranean from the 3rd-11th centuries.

fulfills a pre-1715 EUR requirement and a course elective

Lecture/Class discussions
-
Analysis of primary sources
-
Oral presentations
-
Videos of Medieval Europe
-
Oral Proficiency

