

History 260

RENAISSANCE FLORENCE: CITY AND CULTURE 1300-1550

Michelangelo, Machiavelli, the Medici—what do these have in common? They are all found in Renaissance Florence. Come explore this exciting city of power, intrigue, culture, and corruption. We will investigate the political, economic, social, and artistic dimensions of this beautiful city within a broader Italian and European context.

TUESDAY&THURSDAY, 1:00-2:15 p.m.

fulfills a pre-1715 EUR requirement and a course elective
ORAL PROFICIENCY

Dr. Constance M. Rousseau

- Lecture/Class discussions
 - Analysis of primary sources
 - Oral presentations
 - Videos of Florence
-