

Modern Japan

HIS/AST 368

MWF 11:30-12:20

This course is an in-depth exploration of the history of Japan from the mid-nineteenth century to the present day. Topics to be studied include: the collapse of the Tokugawa shogunate, the Meiji Restoration and Japan's subsequent transformation into a modern-nation state, Japan's imperial expansion into East Asia, the Second World War, and Japan's postwar recovery and growth.

Fulfills Diversity Proficiency and Global History requirement (for HIS majors & minors)