EARLY MODERN EAST ASIA

T/W/F, 9:30-10:20am | Dr. Guolin Yi

This course explores the history of China, Japan, and Korea from the early times to the 19th century with a focus on the early modern era (Ming and Qing-China, Warring States and Tokugawa-period Japan, and late Joseon Korea). Emphasis would be given to the following themes: formation of East Asia as a unique cultural region, construction of political authorities, status of different social groups, and engagement with the West.
