THE VIETNAM WAR

T/W/F, 10:30-11:20 AM
DR. GUOLIN YI

This course is about the history of the Vietnam War from the voices of both American and Vietnamese peoples including politicians, soldiers, and civilians. With a global perspective, it also studies the roles of France, the Soviet Union, China, and Cambodia. We will seek to answer the questions whether the media helped the anti-war movement or whether they led to the American defeat. Through films, television programs, documents, and songs etc., it will shed lights on how the war impacted the American society and the life of many other peoples around the world.
